

after sentences

After dinner I go to sleep.

Soon after, we hugged and said goodbye.

Two weeks after her accident, she went home.

www.worksheetworks.com

After lunch, they go shopping.

What happened after you got the news?

What to do after school?

www.worksheetworks.com

again

sentences

We can start again.

He asked me to read again.

Can you say again, please?

www.worksheetworks.com

They play again today.

Could she sing again?

He did not practice yesterday and will not again today.

www.worksheetworks.com

an

sentences

I ate an apple.

He is an old man now.

I had an umbrella.

www.worksheetworks.com

I want to be an astronaut!

They met on an airplane, in 1991.

Is this an owl on a tree?

www.worksheetworks.com

any

sentences

I don't have any plans at all.

We don't cook any more.

Did he have any questions?

www.worksheetworks.com

We have not any money.

They can't talk any more.

I don't have any ideas.

www.worksheetworks.com

as

sentences

It's not as cold.

It just doesn't look as good.

He appeared as if he belonged.

www.worksheetworks.com

I'll do so as best I can.

He knows that as well as anybody.

I can start as soon as tomorrow.

www.worksheetworks.com

ask

sentences

I call ahead and ask.

I forgot to ask.

We did not ask for help.

www.worksheetworks.com

They ask for directions.

His parents ask me to help him.

They come up and ask questions.

www.worksheetworks.com

by

sentences

He makes decisions by himself.

She began to dance by herself.

Everyone knows that by now.

www.worksheetworks.com

He had never travelled by plane.

okay

I've learned it by now.

I went outside and sat by myself.

www.worksheetworks.com

could sentences

We could see it!

I could barely walk.

He could learn Spanish.

www.worksheetworks.com

Could you please help me?

She could not remember.

They could eat later.

www.worksheetworks.com

every

sentences

They go out every night.

You're learning every day.

They won every time.

www.worksheetworks.com

He still plays every week.

That doesn't happen every year.

We work almost every Sunday.

www.worksheetworks.com

fly

sentences

Soon I will fly to Canada.

yes!

I believe they can fly.

Can he fly?

www.worksheetworks.com

This bird can't fly.

We fly for 40 minutes.

We do not fly a lot any more.

www.worksheetworks.com

from sentences

Where are you from?

I am from London.

I learned from my father.

www.worksheetworks.com

You're far from home.

They came from outside.

I could get help from my teachers.

www.worksheetworks.com

give

sentences

Give me a hug.

Give me a high five!

Give me one chance.

www.worksheetworks.com

I can give you an example.

I can give you the number.

They did not give their names.

www.worksheetworks.com

going

sentences

I'm going to try.

We are going together.

I'm going with some friends.

www.worksheetworks.com

She's going to run.

It's late and I'm going to bed.

You're not going to win.

www.worksheetworks.com

had

sentences

We had a dog.

I had a headache.

I had a plan.

www.worksheetworks.com

She had a cookie.

They had a big party.

He had four children.

www.worksheetworks.com

has

sentences

She has two cats.

He has not returned.

She has ideas.

www.worksheetworks.com

He has more friends than I have.

My mother has three brothers.

My brother has blond hair and blue eyes.

www.worksheetworks.com

her

sentences

Her friends laughed.

Where?

Where is her mother?

Her name is Irina.

www.worksheetworks.com

She wrote to her brother.

Do you know her story?

I cooked her dinner.

www.worksheetworks.com

him

sentences

You should help him.

I'm happy for him.

Do you know him at all?

www.worksheetworks.com

I miss him already.

I spoke with him.

She told him not to worry.

www.worksheetworks.com

his

sentences

I read his book.

His mother was ill.

His clothes were red.

www.worksheetworks.com

He was looking for his dog.

His friends nodded.

No!

It is not his problem.

www.worksheetworks.com

how

sentences

How are you?

How old is she now?

How was the food?

www.worksheetworks.com

How will they know?

How are you going to solve that?

He taught me how to play chess.

www.worksheetworks.com

just

sentences

He just smiled.

I just visited friends.

We just went home.

www.worksheetworks.com

She just told me.

congrats!

They have just done a great job.

They called me just yesterday.

www.worksheetworks.com

know sentences

She knows everything.

I know your name.

Do you know what happened?

www.worksheetworks.com

We don't know at all.

They know the game.

I know her, and I trust her.

www.worksheetworks.com

let

sentences

I let you win.

Let me tell you.

He let his hair grow.

www.worksheetworks.com

They let you know.

Let me count again.

We let him alone.

www.worksheetworks.com

live

sentences

I live in London.

I used to live in Paris.

My parents lived there.

www.worksheetworks.com

We live near the sea.

Do you live near here?

They lived far away, in Tokyo.

www.worksheetworks.com

may

sentences

May I open it?

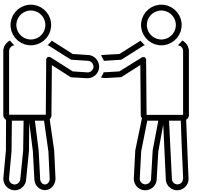

May I go home now?

May I go back to my room now?

www.worksheetworks.com

May I call you Michael?

May I tell you something?

May I ask where it ends?

www.worksheetworks.com

of

sentences

It's out of our control.

You're part of my team.

I'm proud of you.

www.worksheetworks.com

We had plenty of time.

FUN DAY

They have a lot of fun.

He has a lot of money.

www.worksheetworks.com

old

sentences

How old are you?

18

I am 18 years old.

How old is the building?

www.worksheetworks.com

He's an old man.

We are old friends.

The old cat paws the door.

www.worksheetworks.com

once

sentences

I only saw them play once.

I saw him once on television.

Thank you once again!

www.worksheetworks.com

I did not once look back.

He nodded once more.

They met up once a week.

www.worksheetworks.com

open

sentences

Is it open on weekends?

I'll open the door.

I didn't want to open my window.

www.worksheetworks.com

I tried to open my eyes.

He opened the envelope.

She opened the box.

www.worksheetworks.com

over

sentences

I was over there.

Let's sit over here.

It's not over yet.

www.worksheetworks.com

It ran over my foot.

I thought it was game over.

The song was over now.

www.worksheetworks.com

put

sentences

I put down my camera.

I put my hand on my head.

We put our seatbelts on.

www.worksheetworks.com

She began to put the book away.

Jack slowly put his bag down.

Where did I put my glasses?

www.worksheetworks.com

round sentences

It may appear round or oval.

I'm happy all round.

He lost in the first round.

www.worksheetworks.com

The second round began today.

The drums are the only round shape in the place.

The cross sections were round and rectangular.

www.worksheetworks.com

some

sentences

Do you need some water?

I need some water.

Some people are angry.

www.worksheetworks.com

He asked some questions.

She went to get some food.

I was there with some friends.

www.worksheetworks.com

stop

sentences

The rain won't stop.

He stopped the car.

Please, stop crying.

www.worksheetworks.com

They stop laughing.

I tried to stop making noise.

I am going to stop writing now.

www.worksheetworks.com

take sentences

Let's take a break.

You can take your time.

The students take quick notes.

www.worksheetworks.com

I told him to go and take a seat.

They were waiting to take his picture.

He decided to take a bus to his office instead of a taxi.

www.worksheetworks.com

thank sentences

Thank you for listening.

I want to thank my family.

Thank you all for being here.

www.worksheetworks.com

I smile and thank him politely.

We thank them for the support.

I just wanted to say thank you.

www.worksheetworks.com

them sentences

I'm happy for them.

We forgive them.

He laughed with them.

www.worksheetworks.com

She'd tell them everything.

We can't thank them enough.

I told them not to go there.

www.worksheetworks.com

then

sentences

He then told me he was a pilot.

They then called the police.

Nothing has changed since then.

www.worksheetworks.com

She drank cold water, then hot coffee.

Did you know each other then?

We didn't know each other then.

www.worksheetworks.com

think

sentences

I just think and write.

We still think he can play.

Do you think that's true?

www.worksheetworks.com

What do you think now?

I think about dinner.

STORY

I think about the story.

www.worksheetworks.com

walk

sentences

We walked without talking.

We walk in the morning.

I will walk with you.

www.worksheetworks.com

They walk so fast!

They walk to the beach.

Do you prefer to walk or run?

www.worksheetworks.com

were

sentences

We were at home.

You were very funny.

What were you doing?

www.worksheetworks.com

We were very scared.

They were in the kitchen.

The children were at school.

www.worksheetworks.com

when sentences

When can I leave?

When do you sleep?

When did you meet?

www.worksheetworks.com

When will he come back?

When will you eat?

We played when we could.

www.worksheetworks.com